Biodiversity net gain

Householder developments are currently exempt from biodiversity net gain requirements.

However, this exemption still needs to be confirmed by the applicant or agent when making a householder planning permission application.

I/we confirm that the proposed development, if granted permission, would be exempt from the general biodiversity gain condition.

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'general biodiversity gain condition'.

However, the 'general biodiversity gain condition' does not apply in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of Article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).

Details of the pre-application advice received

The scheme is acceptable in principle subject to the changes detailed in the report being accommodated, including:

- Reduction in height of the single storey rear extension (revised height agreed in second Pre-Application meeting with Refael Saffer)
- Reduction in volume of the crown roof as well as associated dormers and size of first floor (revised height agreed in second Pre-Application meeting with Refael Saffer)
- Minimized width of the first floor rear balcony (revised height agreed in second Pre-Application meeting with Refael Saffer)
- Altered front fenestration design (revised height agreed in second Pre-Application meeting with Refael Saffer)
- Amended front and rear elevations clearly showing the side (store) extension

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- Yes
- No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)
