Good Morning,

Thank you for sending the requested drawing. Regarding the site location plan, the site is shown outlined in blue, this is required to be red. Please could you amend and re-send this plan accordingly. Additionally, the planning team has noted that access should be up to the adopted highway. In this case it appears that access may be over a shared access / driveway. Please could you confirm if this is the case? If so the red line of the site location plan would need to be extended to the highway, notice served on the landowners accordingly, and certificate B (attached) completed.

Kind Regards

Lucy
