

The proposed additional dormer window and proposed french doors and windows appear to be included within the permitted development guidelines.

I have also confirmed with Mr Rowe that our property is not within a conservation area.