Biodiversity net gain Householder developments are currently exempt from biodiversity net gain requirements. However, this exemption still needs to be confirmed by the applicant or agent when making a householder planning permission application. I/we confirm that the proposed development, if granted permission, would be exempt from the general biodiversity gain condition. Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'general biodiversity gain condition'. However, the 'general biodiversity gain condition' does not apply in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of Article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).
Site Visit Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land? ② Yes ○ No If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact? ② The agent ○ The applicant ○ Other person

Pre-application Advice

Authority Employee/Member
With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following: (a) a member of staff (b) an elected member (c) related to a member of staff (d) related to an elected member
It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.
For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
Do any of the above statements apply?
○ Yes② No
Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration
Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)
