Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

Application for change of use of part of the attached single garage at 2 Barn Close, from garage/storage space to dwelling space (home office). The new office space will be accessible from within the house via a wooden sliding door between the existing dining room and the proposed office space. No extension to the building footprint is proposed. No change in the external appearance of the building will be made, except for the replacement of the existing rear wood and glass door with a new white uPVC/glass door. Sufficient space is available to park two cars on the front driveway of the property. The office space will encompass approximately 2/3 of the existing garage space. The remaining 1/3 at the front of the garage will remain as storage space. The existing garage is too small for parking a car and has not been used for car parking since 2004. There is sufficient space for parking of one cars on the property's driveway, The external frontage of the garage will remain unchanged with the existing up-an-over garage door being maintained as is. An off road parking already exists on the driveway in front of the garage. A second off road parking space will be created on the front lawn area at the front of he property.

Has the work already been started without consent?

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Site Visit

Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land?

- Yes
 No

If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact?

- The agent
 The applicant
 Other person

Pre-application Advice

Has assistance or prior advice been sought from the local authority about this application?

- Yes
 No

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?
