

The property currently lies outside the designated conservation area, and the proposals should have no significant impact on the conservation area or the various Grade II listed buildings along Main Street, which cannot be seen from the site. This indicates that the proposals will not affect them. The proposed materials are sympathetic to the various buildings also set within the designated conservation area.

Fiskerton Conservation Area

© Crown Copyright and database right 2012 Ordnance Survey. Licence 100022288.