

The non-material amendment proposed here is to remove the side return from the earlier plans. This is as reflected in the plans and elevations attached.