

Heritage statement

The proposed project does not raise any concerns regarding the heritage of the property. The conservation office has inspected the property back in May 2021 and gave preliminary approval to the proposed changes to my property.