

The Georgian façade of Number 1 and Number 2 The Old Rectory are at the front of the property and face towards Church Lane.

Number 3 The Old Rectory forms the majority of the white part of the building that can be seen at the rear.

This image is taken from Old Rectory Drive (a private road).

Photos showing existing poor state of timber windows:

Inside kitchen window (moss and mould growth)

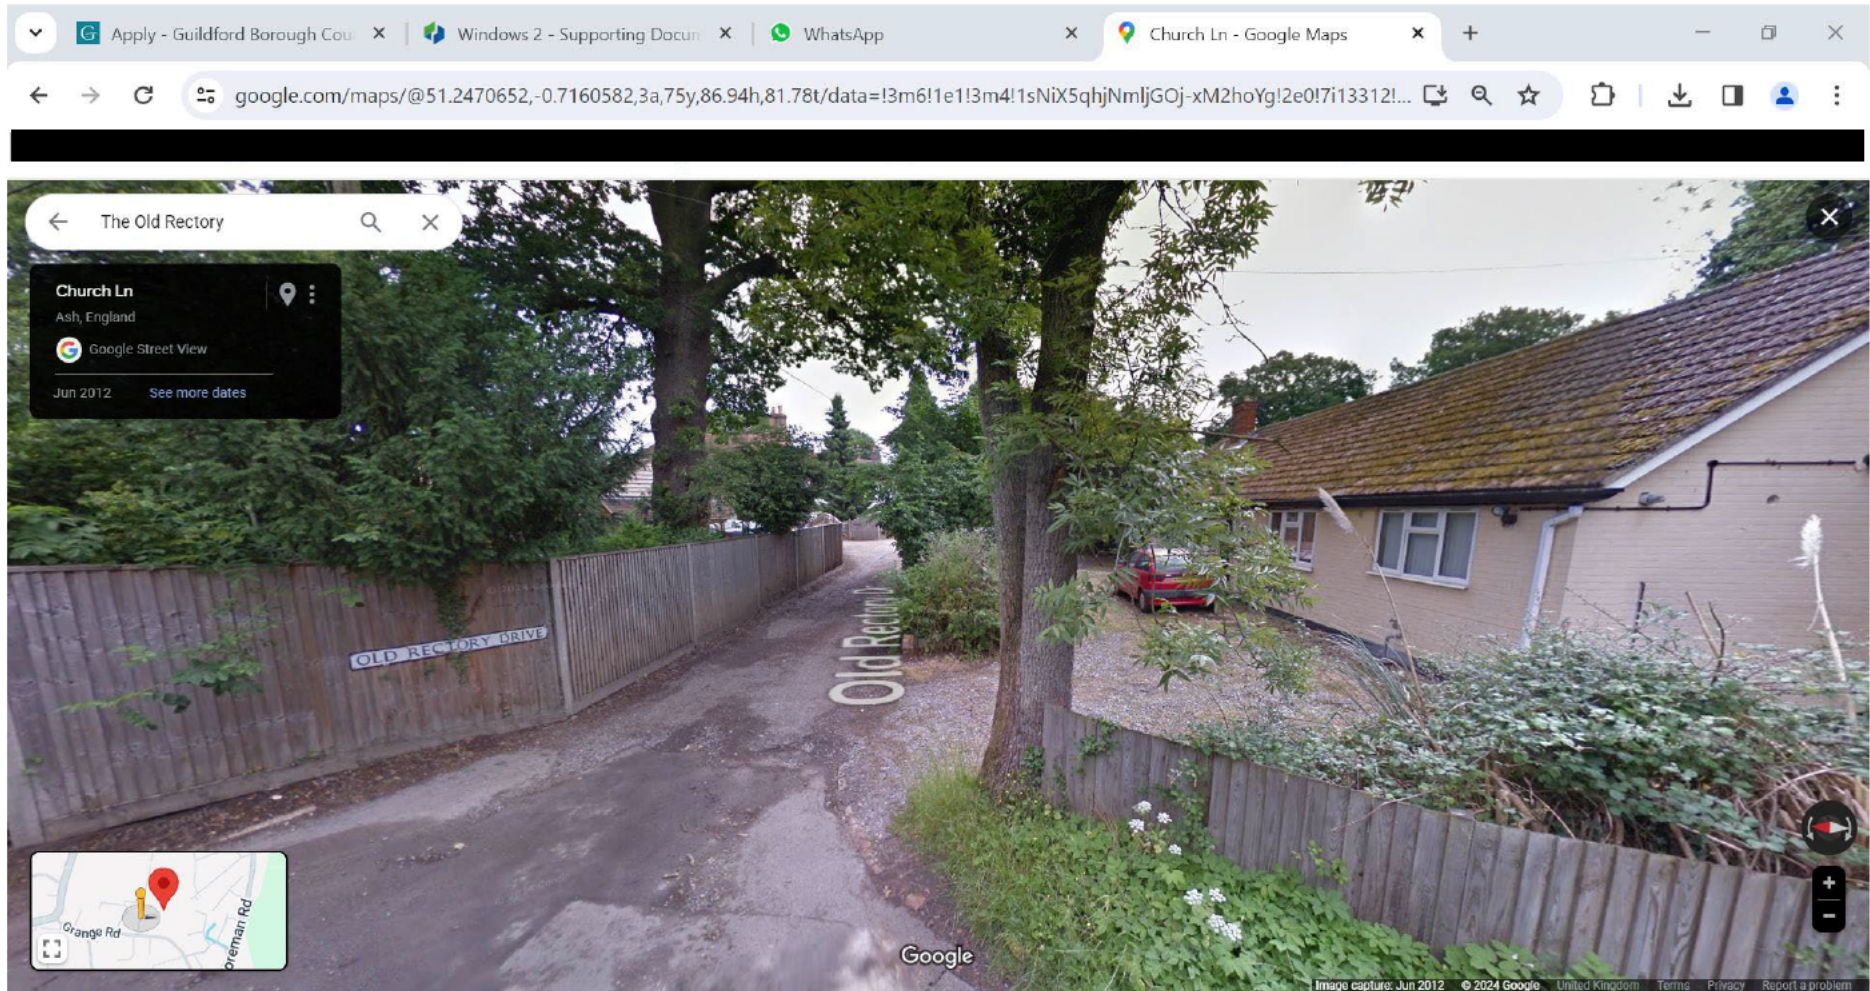

Outside kitchen window

Outside lounge window

The view from Church Lane – this shows that 3 The Old Rectory, which is at the end of the Old Rectory Drive (private road), is not visible from public land:

View from east:

Bedroom 2 (two windows top left)

Bedroom 1 (top right)

Kitchen (bottom left)

This view can only be seen from our property.

View from south:

Bedroom 3 (top left)

Bathroom (top right)

Living room (bottom left)

Kitchen (2x bottom right)

This view can only be seen from private road (Old Rectory Drive)

View from north:

Bedroom 1 (top left)

Landing (top middle)

Study (top right)

This view can only be seen from neighbour's garden.

The bottom two windows are metal and are not part of the application.

