Afternoon,

I have just redone the Location and Site plan on the ReQuesta Plan website, hopefully these will be ok.

Good morning Phillip,

Thank you for the heritage statement. Regarding the plans the measurements are not matching up for example;

On the left-hand side of the border of the property it is measuring 70.69m on scale 1:500 and 28.1m on the location plan with a scale of 1:1250. Whereas our measurement is 31.26m. Please see attached.

It could possibly be the way you are scanning the plans in?

Kind Regards Charlie Collier
