

This photo shows the existing house rear elevation consisting of stone slates and profiled cladding.

The first part of the single storey rear extension has an asphalt finish, the proposed conversion has profiled metal cladding which will be raised to the same height as the raised external store, which has zinc coated profile metal cladding.

Roof and eaves detail for the existing kitchen flat roof.

The store to be converted – eaves detail

External store – profiled zinc cladding.