

Sliding Sash Windows

Sliding Sash Windows ~ these are an alternative format to the conventional side hung casement windows and can be constructed as a vertical or double hung sash window or as a horizontal sliding window in timber, metal, plastic or in any combination of these materials. The performance and design functions of providing daylight, ventilation, vision out, etc., are the same as those given for traditional windows in Windows - Performance Requirements on page 265

Typical Double Hung Weight Balanced Window Details ~

ELEVATION

JAMB DETAIL

VERTICAL SECTION

Typical 145