

Design Statement

The existing wooden casement windows will be replaced with UPVC windows of the same size and style. The building was converted into four flats in 1967 as far as I'm aware and it would appear that these wooden casement windows probably replaced any existing windows at that time.

The openings will be of the same size but the larger opening will have to be hinged at the top rather than at the side due to the weight of the units.

Front Bedroom Window 1

Front Bedroom Window 2

Bay Window