

Design and access statement

York Mansion House Flagpole

The Mansion House flagpole was installed in 1868 and has been used to fly national and international flags since that date. It is the principle flagpole of the City York Council.

Alongside the permitted flag flying, this application is to request permission to allow community flags to be flown from the Mansion House. Groups requesting permission to fly flags will be required to adhere to the City York Council flag flying protocol.