

External view: End facing rear wall of the east-most rear of 3b Reeves Lane. The white ringed circle represents the position intended for the round brick outlined window.

Internally, the opposite side of this wall is the double height vaulted ceiling of the east end of the house kitchen.

