During the school day, the mobile classroom is used for a Year 1 and 2 class. The provision of a mobile at Sutton Primary School will ensure that the Local Authority is able to fulfil the duty of providing a school place for every child who is of statutory school age and whose parents want their child educated in the state-funded sector (Section 14 of the Education Act, 1996). Therefore the mobile is still required to ensure that the statutory duties can be met as well as facilitating the growth of the community.

If you wish the existing condition to be changed, please state how you wish the condition to be varied
