

The works are to be carried on the small first floor Gable end. As the below photo shows there are no invasive species or requirements for an ecology report.

