

Drawings & Elevations

We understand that typically vertical and horizontal section drawings are required for an application for listed building consent. However, in our case we only repaired four internal timber beams, which does not affect any layout or façade.

Therefore, we are not submitting any drawings and ask for to be exempt from submitting drawings.