Report Suspicious

Hi Sarah, hope you're well.

Apologies, looks like the wrong site plan was uploaded with the application.

Please see attached the correct site plan.

Reason for work: Tips of trees are breaching aviation safety zones. Crown reduction required for good tree management and to comply with UK Aviation Law

Kind regards - Mike

Good Morning

I have your tree works application for the above location.

Please could you provide a reason for the work.

Also, could you check that the plan that was included with the application is correct? It doesn't seem to resemble the location given on the application.

If the plan needs updating, please can you email it to me I will add it to the application.

Your application is attached for reference.

Regards, Sarah
