I had stated that the development does not involve any existing built form to be demolished. James Amos missed this fact and relied upon the wrong VSC. The development is to rebuild a house destroyed by fire and will be the same as before. The VSC in para 154 d would mean no other built form needs to be removed as offset. Please see email form James Amos, 8th Feb:

Dear Giles,

Thank you for your email and thanks for pointing this out.

I suggest you make an application under section 73 of the T&CP Act to remove condition 7, which would then enable the existing buildings on the site to be retained. The Council would then grant a new permission which would sit alongside the original.

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.

Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days? Yes

Is any of the land to which the application relates part of an Agricultural Holding?

OYes ⊘No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A

I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/ the applicant was the owner* of any part of the land or building to which the application relates, and that none of the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, an agricultural holding

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

 "agricultural holding" has the meaning given by reference to the definition of "agricultural tenant" in section 65(8) of the Act.

NOTE: You should sign Certificate B, C or D, as appropriate, if you are the sole owner of the land or building to which the application relates but the land is, or is part of, an agricultural holding.
