Good Morning,

Thank you for sending all the requested details over, and sorry for the delay in getting back to you. As far as I can see I think we have everything now to register the application to a Planning Officer, it has been sent over for a final check and allocation to said Planning Officer, once the application is registered you will receive an email detailing who is dealing with the application.

For clarification could you please reply and let me the height of the proposed flag pole?

Kind Regard
Sarah
